Scottsdale Cares activities must fall within one or more of the following eligible activities:

- Promote the positive development of youth, adults, and/or seniors
- Strengthen the capability of families and the self-sufficiency of adults
- Assist Scottsdale residents of all ages to address crisis needs

Activities must meet the following requirements:

- Pass-through funding

The Human Services Commission reserves the right to solicit applications for services in specific categories during the application process, but once applications are received, all proposals will be competitively evaluated.
